THIRD DAY'S SESSION OF CONVENTION

Despite Intense Heat Big Crowd Has Filled Auditorium--Platform Being Fully Discussed by Committee--Nomination May be Made Tonight.

CHEERING RECORD WAS SMASHED.

1888—Ten minutes when Harrison was nominated 1892—Twenty-one minutes at mention of Blaine's name when W. H. Eustace of Minnesota, seconded Blaine's nomination made by Senator Wolcott of Colorado.
1892—Twenty and one-half minutes when Harrison was nominated by Depew.
1896—Twelve minutes for McKinley and Roosevelt.
1896—Twelve minutes for Bryan when he began speech of "Crown of thorns and cross of gold," but 30 minutes before convention was restored to order after he finished.
1904—Thirty seconds at Chicago convention when Roosevelt was mentioned, and 20 minutes on announcement of his nomination.
1908—Forty-five minutes at the Chicago convention when Senator Lodge mentioned the name of President Roosevelt.
1908—Ninety minutes at the Denver convention when Senator Gore, of Oklahoma, mentioned name of W. J. Bryan.

DENVER, July 9.—The third day's session of the national convention was called at 11 o'clock. The platform upon which the planks are now being nailed by the resolution's committee to be presented and adopted by the convention, probably late today.

Possibility of nominating speeches and vote for presidential candidates tonight.

Vice presidential situation still uncertain.

The total vote is now 1006, four votes having been added to the roll through increase of Oklahoma vote from 14 to 18, by the credential's committee. The two-thirds vote necessary to a choice for presidential and vice presidential candidates is therefore 671.

Denver, July 9.—Congressman Ollie James, floor leader of the Bryan element, stated that the convention will recess until 7 o'clock tonight,
"Then we will adopt our platform and nominate Bryan," he said.

Denver, July 9.—At 11:30 a. m.
today Temporary Chairman Bell called the Democratic National convention to order for the third day's session.

When the sub-committee on platform finally met today it was predicted that the committee would not be able to report to the full committee for several hours and it will probably be impossible to have the platform presented to the convention itself until late this afternoon or tonight. Each plank is being fully discussed by the sub-committee.

A bitter struggle is being made against committing the party to a physical valuation of the railroads to aid the interstate commerce commission in fixing reasonable rates. Judge Parker of New York, is leading this fight.

Despite the intense heat and general belief that it would be hours and probably not until tomorrow before nominations could be reached, the crowd piled into the building filling up every seat and standing in the topmost galleries. Delegates were slow in arriving.

In the meantime the platform committee after discussion, had adopted unanimously the anti-injunction plank as recommended by the subcommittee. It is said to be unsatisfactory to President Compers, but heads of tribunals organizations have telegraphed a protest against it to Bryan. After Chairman Bell had secured order, Rabbi Samuel Koth, offered prayer.

Denver, July 9.—Great interest is being taken in the anti-injunction platform. The sub-committee, of which George Fred Williams, of Massachusetts, is chairman, had completed its draft and was ready to report it when he arrived at committee room. It is as follows:

"The Democratic party presents any attempted reflection upon the judiciary. The courts themselves are not only created by law, but their juris-side the presence of the court, the defendant shall have right of trial by jury."

Ollie James, congressman from Kentucky, announced today that it was the intention of the leaders, it possible, to put through the terminating organization of the convention and adopt the platform during the afternoon's session and then adjourn
until tonight to nominate Bryan.
The vice presidential candidate would then be nominated tomorrow and the convention adjourn sine die before tomorrow night.

Denver, July 9.—In the hope of being able to report a completed platform to the national convention immediately after the conclusion of the speech of Permanent Chairman Clayton, the political carpenters took an unusually early breakfast.

The general sub-committee of the full platform committee got together at 8:30 to receive reports of the subcommittee to which had been referred preparation of the planks on various subjects.

These committees held sessions during the night and agreed upon practically all of the planks in question.
Those on injunction railroads, currency and trusts were yet to be agreed upon when the general sub-committee met this morning to formulate its report to the full committee scheduled to meet at 9 o'clock.

Before the national convention was called to order at 11 o'clock today, indications were that there would be considerable debate in full resolutions committee on some of the important planks, especially those with reference to injunctions, currency, tariff, railroads trusts and waterways.

Denver, July 9.—An effort is being made today by the anti-Bryanites to show as a result of the voting in the Democratic convention last night in the Guffey case, that Bryan has not got the necessary two-thirds to nominate him.

This claim is based on the fact that only 615 votes could be mastered to carry out the Bryan plan of ousting
the Guffey delegates.

If the delegates who voted to sus-tain Guffey were to stand firm, it is argued, they could prevent the nomination of Bryan on the first ballot.
In this speculation it is, however, overlooked that many delegates who came here under positive instructions
to vote for Bryan for the presidency, did not consider themselves bound by instructions to support all of his policies and voted for Guffey.

Among the votes cast in favor of Pennsylvania, were the following from delegations instructed for Bryan: California 6, Colorado 9, Illinois 54, Iowa 2, Missouri 5, South Carolina 4, Tennessee 12, Virginia 22, West Virginia 23, District of Columbia 6.
This is a total of 123 votes.

Adding them to 615 votes cast in the convention against Guffey makes a grand total of at least 738, which will go to Bryan on the first ballot for president.

As the number necessary to nominate is only 671, Bryan has 67 more than two-thirds of the convention.

Women and Children Fall in the Blood Stained Streets--Population Crazed With Hunger.

Odessa, July 9.—Rioting and bloodshed and merciless slaughter by Cossacks broke out in Tabriz, Persia,
again today.

A food famine is the cause of the latest outbreak. Thousands of citizens of the stricken city early this morning began a bread riot in the street. Mobs of starving people made raids on bakers and provision houses.
Soldiers and cavalrymen charged the frantic hungry-mad mobs.

A fight is now raging more bitter
than in any other previous encounters.
Women and children joined in the rioting and fell with the men in the bloodstained streets.

The casualties of the day will run into thousands and no one can predict what the end will be for a large part of the population is crazed with hunger.

New York, July 9.—The prize so eagerly sought for by publishers throughout the United States, the contract with Theodore Roosevelt for the chronicle of his big game hunt in South Africa, has gone to the firm of Chas. Scribner's Sons. Scribner's

ceive a royalty.

ator. A parade over a mile in length preceded the exercises which were the Demonstration for Nebraskan Lasted

For One Hour and Nineteen Minutes.

Denver, July 9.—The early meeting
of the convention Wednesday was productive of little practical progress as the principal committees were not ready to report. But it had the effect of an explosion of long pent up Bryan enthusiasm, which took the signal from Senator Gore's eloquent reference to the Nebraska leader and burst into a whirlwind of enthusiastic tribute lasting one hour and 19 minutes, with seven minutes more of the exploding echoes of clamor, establishing the convention record of an hour and 26 minutes or full 39 minutes in excess of the Roosevelt demonstration at Chicago, which held the record. It was a decisive exhibition of the overmastering strength of Bryan column
and one of the most dramatic convention pictures ever presented as the standard of the states were torn from their moorings and borne through the hall until they stood together on the platform, like an army of banners, proclaiming their united allegiance to Bryan. Amid this storm of Bryan demonstration the six standards of New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Georgia, Minnesota and Connecticut stood rooted to their places, the rallying points of little groups unmoved by the frenzied scenes about them. Throughout the hour and 19 minutes the deafening uproar continued, ebbing and flowing in intensity, women joining with the men in bearing the Bryan standard aloft, while the whole assemblage of 12,000 people joined in the tumultuous demonstration.

The early session lasted 3 hours and then, worn out with exertion and lacking the material to proceed with business, the convention recessed until eight o'clock p. m.

BLIND SENATOR STARTS BRYAN DEMONSTRATION

"We will hear from Senator Gore," announced Chairman Bell amid great cheering.

When the chairman announced that Senator Gore of Oklahoma would address the convention the delegates of that state went into a spasm of delight. They whooped and yelled as the blind senator from the newest state in the Union was led to the platform. His first utterances were happy, and he caught the convention immediately. Loud cheers and applause greeted his declaration that Oklahoma is the most Democratic state in the Union. The cheers were repeated later, when he said:

"The President of the United States
has said that his opinion of our constitution is unfit for publication. That is true of many of the opinions of the President of the United States.
Follow Democrats, the great Secretary of War came to Oklahoma and waged war against our constitution," continued Senator Gore. "He asked us to give up our right of liberty and self-government. But by a vote of thousands upon thousands we rejected the advice of Taft and accepted the advice of Bryan."

FIRE SWEEPS HARBOR FRONT FOR OVER MILE

Loss Caused by Flames
Will Reach Million
and a Half

BOATS ARE DESTROYED

One Life Lost--Heaviest Loss Falls
on the Railroads--Boston Fire a Stubborn One.

Boston, July 9.—A fire, believed to have been caused by spontaneous combustion or a locomotive spark, and fanned by a brisk northwest wind, swept nearly a quarter of a mile of the harbor front of East Boston late Wednesday evening, causing a property loss estimated at nearly $1,- 500,000. Much of the loss falls on the Boston and Albany railroad. Daniel Sullivan is missing and it is thought that he perished in the flames.

The fire was the biggest and most destructive that has broken out along the harbor front for many years. The flames spread with remarkable rapidity and by the time the first fire fighting apparatus arrived on the scene they were beyond control and leaping from pier to pier.

Within half an hour of the time
the fire was discovered, four piers,
three warehouses, a grain elevator containing 30000 bushels of grain, and many loaded freight cars had been destroyed.

Several vessels and lighters narrowly escaped destruction. Less fortunate were the British bark Belmont of Yarmouth, N. S., and the schooners Paul Palmer, a five-masted craft, and the O. H. Brown, a four-masted. The Belmont was moored by steel cables to the pier where the fire first started.
So quickly did the flames envelop the wharf and warehouse that by the time the Belmont was gotten out into the stream the piling had been burned off her steel hull, her cabins had been practically destroyed, her life boats ruined and her spars, sails and rigging so badly burned as to make a complete new equipment necessary.
The Palmer escaped with slight damage.

In each of the warehouses destroyed
there were many cars loaded with freight for export. All of these cars and their contents were destroyed.
Between pier 6 and the pier of the Massachusetts Coal Wharf company a wide stretch of water intervened and here the fire was checked by the fire boats, harbor tugs and practically the entire strength of the Boston and Chelsea fire departments. Several times the pier and the coal packets were on fire but the property was saved.

The Boston and Albany railroad,
New York Central and Hudson River railroad, lessees, are the greatest losers. It is estimated that the railroads' loss is $1,000,000, covered by insurance. The loss of freight and grain is placed at fully $400,000. Practically all of the freight was insured.

New York, July 9.—More than a

in smoke early today in a fire which nearly wiped out Coney Island. Two famous hotels, the Vanderveers and Pabsts, were destroyed and 25,000 people saw their guests leap for life

men and women leaped to unburned
awnings when the flames started.
Nearly all guests lost all of their

HOBSON INTRUDES WITH WAR TALK

Predicts Dire Calamities for Democrats If They Win.

REFUSES TO TAKE A HINT

Stenographer Delays Night Session by Disappearing With Credentials Committee's Majority Report—Minority Report Favoring Guffey Delegation Turned Down.

Denver, July 9.—Spectators were more prompt in arriving for the night session of the Democratic national convention than were the delegates, and the galleries in the auditorium were well filled by 8 o'clock. Apparently it was the opinion of many of the visitors that the night session was to reveal a reproduction of the spectacular scenes enacted during the day. Delegates were, however, of another mind and, having worried themselves by their enthusiasm earlier in the day, did not pour into the hall with the same alacrity as was shown by the public.

The officers of the convention and the members of the credentials committee were in a panic as the time approached for the opening of the convention, because the majority report of the committee was missing. The precious document was in the possession of the stenographer, and he could not be found. The same individual was also in possession of a speech to be delivered by Representative Ollie James of Kentucky, who was also in mental distress because of the absence of his oration. The last seen of the stenographer was at 1 o'clock, when he went away with the report, under strict injunctions to write it and return it as soon as possible. Chairman Callahan of the credentials committee, with flushed and perturbed face, was rushing hither and thither about the hall, frantically sending messengers and working the telephone to every spot where his imagination allowed him to suspect that the missing stenographer might be in retirement. Mr. Callahan finally went to Chairman Bell with the information that he could not find his report, and suggested that some speakers fill in the time that must elapse before the missing report was found.

The convention officials, after a short conference, held immediately after Mr. Callahan had rushed away on another hot scent, decided that no work should be undertaken by the convention at the night session except to consider the report of the credentials committee. Debate on the majority and minority reports, it was agreed, should be limited to 30 minutes on each side. The report of the committee on permanent organization and the speech of Chairman Clayton went over until morning.

At 8:30 the report of the committee on credentials was brought to the hall, but Chairman Bell had wandered off and could not be located, and the delegates and spectators put in another period of inactivity while pages and messengers were scouring the hall to bring the chairman to his desk and his duty.

When Chairman Bell had been brought back, after bringing down his gavel in a rapid tattoo, he gave vent once more to his stereotyped cry. "The convention will be in order, gentlemen will take their seats."

The convention, however, did not at once come to order nor did the gentlemen "take their seats," for the reason that a number of letter carriers were distributing mail among the delegates and they were for the time being more interested in letters from home than in reports from convention matters. The convention apparently was in sufficient order to proceed to business several times, but Mr. Bell did not take advantage of any one of the psychological moments, but continued to pound with his gavel, the "rap, rap, rap," of the wooden mallet on a marble slab being punctuated from time to time with the conventional call of "Gentlemen will take their seats."

The galleries finally helped the chairman out, and their storm of hisses quieted the turbulence on the floor. It was 8:37 when the business of the evening was taken up.

Mr. Ormonde of Florida was recognized to move that Representative Richmond Pearson Hobson of Alabama be invited to address the convention. Mingled with the cheers for "Hobson, Hobson," were many cries of "no, no."

Chairman Bell put the motion to a viva voce vote, and there was a rousing storm of "aye" and "no," some of the delegates supplementing their negative votes by demands of "give us committee reports; we want to do business."

"Please permit the chair to announce the result," said the chairman as soon as he could be heard above the confusion. "I have a very sensitive ear and I decide that the vote is a tie. It is therefore the privilege of the chair to cast the deciding vote. I cast it in the affirmative, and Congressman Hobson is invited to address the convention."

Cheers and a few hisses followed Hobson to the stand, and he received a warm welcome as he stood behind Chairman Bell. His first words showed that he realized that a speech at that particular moment was not entirely welcome to all of the delegates, for he declared that he would not venture to make an address did he not feel it his duty to do so, and to deliver himself of the truth as he believed he saw it. He then began at some length to lead up to a discussion of the Japanese incidents of several months ago at Vancouver and San Francisco.

After Hobson had been speaking for 15 minutes the crowd began to grow restless and cries of "time" came from floor and galleries. Chairman Bell called for order, saying the speaker would conclude in a few moments.

In concluding his address Congressman Hobson declared that if the Democratic party was successful in the election he believed that it would before the end of four years, "have a great foreign war on its hands."

Instantly there came from the convention a chorus of mingled groans, cat calls, hisses and cries of "no, no." After several interruptions, Mr. Hobson concluded and Charles A. Towne was invited to address the convention by Chairman Bell. His address was brief and to the point. He was followed by Senator Taylor of Tennessee, who took the platform and made a few remarks.

As Senator Taylor retired the chairman announced: "Gentlemen of the convention, we are now going to get down to hard work. The committee on credentials is ready to report. The chair recognizes Christopher G. Callahan, chairman of the committee."

Mr. Callahan then read the report, which was as follows: "In the matter of the contests in Idaho, Illinois, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and the District of Columbia, your committee begs to report that they have carefully investigated each of said contests; that hearings have been given to both the contestants and the contestees in each of the states, and your committee has endeavored to ascertain as near as could be all the facts bearing upon each contest, and after a careful investigation of the merits of each contest recommends that in each of the following contests the delegations as named by the national committee be entitled to seats and be the regularly accredited delegates and alternates to this convention, namely:

"The state of Idaho: the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth and Tenth districts of Illinois; the Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, and Seventh districts of the state of New York; the Nineteenth district of Ohio; the Thirtieth district of Pennsylvania; the District of Columbia.

"In the matter of the contest from the First, Second, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth districts of the state of Pennsylvania, we recommend that the contestants shall be seated and recognized by this convention as the duly accredited delegates and alternates from said districts in the state of Pennsylvania, to-wit: First district, Neil Bonner, Michael Francis; Second district, Ryerson W. Jennings; Fourth district, A. Raymond Raff, Horace P. Fegol; Fifth district, Patrick F. Moran, Paul Wise; Sixth district, P. J. Hallahan.

"In the matter of the contest from the Nineteenth district of the state of Ohio, your committee recommends that the following be seated in this convention as the accredited delegates from said district: E. A. Powers, Dr. William Watts."

While the chairman was reading the report, Roger C. Sullivan, chairman of the Illinois delegation, which state was generally understood to have determined to fight side by side with Pennsylvania in behalf of the minority report, was busily running about the floor conferring with a number of other delegations and preparing for the fight soon to come.

When Chairman Callahan read the decision of the committee in favor of the contestants against Guffey in Pennsylvania, there were a few hisses and some applause. The interruption was of brief duration, however, and the reading of the report was continued. Is the matter of the two lists of committee appointments from the state of Pennsylvania, Chairman Callahan reported that the credentials committee recommended that, in view of the contest decisions, the list be referred back to the delegation for further action. Mr. Callahan concluded by moving the adoption of the report. "I second that motion," shouted a delegate from Indiana. The chairman stated the question and then recognized L. L. Straus of Maryland, who read the minority report, which recommended that the contestees in the Pennsylvania cases be seated.

The chairman recognized Chairman Callahan of the credentials committee as the first speaker in behalf of the majority report. Before Mr. Callahan could speak Mr. Straus claimed that as he carried the affirmative he had the right to open and close the debate. The chair ruled, however, that the chairman of the committee, as he represented the majority, should have the right to open and close, and he again recognized Mr. Callahan. Mr. Callahan began by saying that the time allowed the majority would be divided between himself and Governor Haskell of Oklahoma, the latter ending the debate. It had been expected that Ollie James of Kentucky would speak in support of the majority report, but the limiting of the time prevented.

Mr. Callahan said the evidence before the committee showed that in Philadelphia the Guffey faction brought a host of Republicans to the Democratic primary polls. These voters, he declared, were members of the Philadelphia Republican machine, of which "one McNichol" was the head. In one congressional district where the normal Democratic vote was about 1,000, the vote in the primary swelled to more than 2,700. This was but one instance of many, declared Mr. Callahan, the evidence of which was supported by undisputed affidavits.

"When we consider all the evidence," he concluded, "it was impossible to escape the conclusion that the Democracy of Philadelphia had been kept at home by an alliance of one element of the Democracy with the dominant Republican machine in the city. We were urged that exigencies of harmony required that we should shut our eyes to these irregularities, but no set of men with a spark of justice in their breast could do other than what we have done."

The first speaker for the minority report was Mr. Straus, who had presented it. Mr. Straus asked that the substitution of the minority for the majority report should be on the ground that the majority report was an attack upon the indefensible rights of the Democrats of a sovereign state.

The New York delegation showed marked signs of a sympathy with the minority report as Mr. Straus went on, applauding him frequently. They cheered him lustily as did many other delegates, notably those of Pennsylvania, when he said that any man who had read law for three weeks knew that to deprive delegates of their seat, it must be shown that enough illegal votes had been cast at the election to change the result, and no evidence of this kind he declared had been heard by the credentials committee.

To conclude the argument in behalf of the minority report, the chair recognized John D. Bellamy, of North Carolina, one of the signers of the document. He declared the contestants brought absolutely no sort of credentials with them to set against the undisputed count of ballots cast in favor of the Guffey delegation.

The closing speaker for the majority and the last of the debate was Governor Haskell of Oklahoma. He promptly took up the statement of Mr. Bellamy that Republicans could properly vote at Democratic primaries. He discussed in sarcastic sentences the contention of Mr. Bellamy, asserting that, under that gentleman's argument, he might as well have been elected a delegate to the Chicago convention. After he had charged the contestees in the Pennsylvania cases with collusion with the Republicans, he was interrupted by a voice from the rear of the hall saying:

"Give 'em the other barrel." Governor Haskell charged the Pennsylvania contestees with being the tools of the Standard Oil company. He said the convention should say to the contestees: "Go back to your Standard Oil tanks," and instantly he was drowned with a yell of approval, which was, however, mingled with many hisses.

"I've heard that hissing sound come out of a pipe line many a time," shouted the governor and the convention broke into a roar of laughter and applause. He concluded by strongly urging the adoption of the majority report.

Governor Haskell was congratulated when he left the platform.

The rollcall on the adoption of the minority report was enlivened by a sharp exchange of words between Colonel Guffey and Representative Ollie James of Kentucky over the right of the contesting delegates from Pennsylvania to vote. The chair ruled that the point of order made by Mr. James was not well taken, and the delegates as certified by the national committee were permitted to vote on the report, which was lost by a vote of 387 to 615. The majority report was then adopted by a viva voce vote and the convention adjourned until 11 o'clock a. m.

Bryan's Friends Back Kansas Man For Campaign Manager.

Denver, Colo., July 9.—A strongly supported movement having the backing of a number of the most intimate personal friends of W. J. Bryan, including several members of the national committee, was launched in Denver in the interest of James H. Atwood of Leavenworth, Kan., member of the national committee from that state, for the chairmanship of the national committee.

It is stated upon good authority that the selection of Mr. Atwood would be gratifying to Mr. Bryan. Mr. Atwood is one of the best-known attorneys in the middle west, and his work in connection with the prosecution of important cases against the railroads before the interstate commerce commission has attracted national attention. He has been in Mr. Bryan's confidence for years, and at the request of the Nebraska will make one of the principal seconding speeches of the latter's nomination. He has a considerable reputation as an orator, and his speech seconding the nomination of Bryan is expected to give impetus to his candidacy for the chairmanship of the national committee.

Are Goulds Reconciled?

New York, July 9.—Reports that Frank J. Gould and his wife have become reconciled were circulated, following the striking from the court calendar of an action entitled "Gould versus Gould." This was said to be the action for divorce brought by Mrs. Gould about a week ago. When the case was reached on the calendar there was no response from counsel for either party to the action and by order of the court it was stricken off. Counsel for both Mr. and Mrs. Gould, seen afterwards, declined to make any statement concerning the case.

Democratic Platform Builders Expedite Matters by Dividing Work Among Members of Subcommittee. Parker and Ferguson Clash Over Expression of Discrimination in Courts.

Denver, July 9.—The subcommittee of the resolutions committee of the Democratic national convention, after wrestling nearly all of Tuesday night and Wednesday morning with the problem of a platform that will be acceptable to conservative and radical elements of the party, decided to expedite matters by dividing the work among subcommittees of the subcommittee. These subcommittees were named to consider various subjects, including injunctions, trusts, railroads, resources of the country, tariff, etc. These minor subcommittees consisted in all cases of three members and the remainder of the day was spent largely by them in consultations over the various subjects. There were, however, some questions upon which the full subcommittee found it possible to pass and these included the publicity of campaign contributions, relative to which a strong plank was adopted. The committee also adopted various other suggestions, among them being planks demanding the enactment of an income tax law, providing for the restriction of oriental immigration, denouncing what the committee was pleased to call President Roosevelt's "perpetuation of his dynasty."

The subcommittee on tariff found little difficulty in reaching a conclusion. This committee consisted of Messrs. Pettigrew of South Dakota, Brown of Nebraska and Ailschuler of Illinois.

R. F. PETTIGREW.
He Blocked Expression of Confidence in Integrity of Courts.

Illinois, and it was reported to the full subcommittee. That committee recommended the adoption of a comprehensive plank on the tariff, including among others a provision for free printing paper, free wood pulp, logs, lumber, etc. No definite announcement on the question of the Philippine tariff relative to sugar was made by the subcommittee.

During the day the committee reached its conclusion that it would not insert any declaration on the question of the rights of negroes. Mr. Bryan had made a tentative suggestion against discrimination on account of race, but the southern members of the subcommittee expressed the opinion that the declarations of principles would be more acceptable in the southern states if there should be no intimation of the party's attitude on this subject. During the discussion some of the members of the committee said there would be no objection to Mr. Bryan's announcing his own personal views on this subject in his letter of acceptance in case he should be nominated. Probably the nearest approach to a clash during the day was on the subject of the courts, when Judge Parker and Senator Pettigrew expressed in sharp language diametrically opposed opinions. Mr. Parker presented a plank announcing the party's confidence in the federal courts, in support of which he made a strong plea. He had no sooner taken his seat than Mr. Pettigrew took the floor in opposition to the plank. He said that as for himself he had little or no confidence in the federal courts, but he was willing to compromise by leaving the subject entirely untouched, and the subcommittee decided to follow this course.

The full subcommittee gave considerable attention to the subject of a preamble for the platform and there was for a time a good deal of rivalry between the preamble of the New York platform and that of the Nebraska platform, the former being championed by Judge Parker and the latter by former Senator Pettigrew and others—Ultimately the Nebraska language was accepted because of its brevity.

The subcommittee appointed to draft an injunction plank reported, stating through its chairman, Mr. Williams, that the three members, himself, Judge Parker and Mr. Sullivan, had reached a complete agreement. He also made the announcement that the plank had been scrutinized by the officers of the Federation of Labor and was acceptable to them. The plank as thus recommended takes position favorably to the placing of labor disputes on a level with other disputes and against the courts regarding laborers differently from other classes of citizens. There is no requirement for notice previous to an injunction proceeding, because Mr. Guffey had said that none would be demanded providing there could be a cessation of discrimination against the labor element.

MAKES LITTLE COMMENT

Bryan Receives News of Convention Outburst With Gravity.

Fairview, Lincoln, Neb., July 9.—That Mr. Bryan was deeply affected by the outburst at the Denver convention was shown in the gravity with which he received the news. One hour and twenty minutes of delicious homage were pictured in crisp telegrams received at Fairview, and the thrill of it showed in flashes in the eyes of the man to whom it was paid.

When the demonstration began Mr. Bryan and a dozen newspapermen, Robert F. Rose, who is Mr. Bryan's secretary, and the telegrapher on the bulletin wire occupied the sun room, as the glass enclosed porch is properly called. Five minutes—10 minutes passed with the wire clicking off details of the scene. The candidate in an alpaca office coat and vest, smiled at the news, but left comments to his visitors. In a laughing manner Mr. Bryan said: "You credit me with too much influence with the convention."

"You wouldn't think so if you were there," exclaimed Arthur English, a West Virginian who is an old friend of the Nebraska and had just returned from Denver.

Mr. Bryan then invited his guests and the newspaper correspondents to assist in devouring the mammoth watermelon sent to him by Texas admirers.

SHROUDED IN MYSTERY

Sheldon's Selection Comes as a Surprise to Many Republicans.

Washington, July 9.—The appointment of George R. Sheldon as treasurer of the national Republican committee was a surprise and was accompanied by an element of mystery.

Preceding the meeting of the executive committee discussion of the treasurer's position had centered upon Representative McKinley of Illinois, treasurer of the Republican congressional committee. It was generally believed by the leaders of the party who have consulted with Mr. Taft that he desired to have Mr. McKinley serve as treasurer of the national committee, and had practically told him that he would have to submit to be "drafted" for that position.

It is stated that Mr. Sheldon's appointment was upon the recommendation of Cornelius N. Bliss, treasurer of the committee since 1902. It is also stated that his selection has the approval of President Roosevelt, with whom he was a classmate at Harvard.

The selection of Mr. Hitchcock as chairman was expected, as the presence at Hot Springs of all the factions of the party who would be likely to make a fight against his appointment had not developed any purpose to oppose his selection. He was known to be the choice of Mr. Taft, and several of those who had been called in consultation with Mr. Taft subordinated their preferences in deference to the wishes of the presidential nominee.

The designation of Mr. Vorys to be in charge of the national campaign in Ohio is regarded as a solution of the embarrassment arising from the selection of Mr. Hitchcock in preference to Mr. Vorys. By this arrangement the campaign in Ohio will be in a sense separate from the balance of the country. Vorys will be accountable only to Mr. Taft.

CONVENTION SIDELIGHTS.

"I saw the waving banners, the marching, the gesticulating crowds, and the look of triumph on the faces of the Bryan followers as plainly as if I had my sight; for a blind man is not so remote from the world as the person who has good eyes and no imagination."

This is the way Senator Gore today described the tremendous demonstration which was started in the convention by his reference to Bryan as "The greatest living apostle of human liberty."

"The demonstration was a complete surprise to me," he continued. "I had scarcely completed the introduction of my speech when the storm broke and during the hour or more that followed I faced the world and saw what was going on. I believe my picture was as vivid as that of any man or woman present."

The senator today is the recipient of congratulations from hundreds of people from Oklahoma, who are in the city and who aided materially in inciting the volume and duration of the monster demonstration.

Denver has begun to make a mardigras out of the convention. Residents and visitors have been imbued with the carnival spirit and the police are trying to put a damper on it. Last night thousands of tin horns and other carnival paraphernalia were turned loose on the streets. A big touring automobile loaded with policemen started out to corral the noise-makers. Wherever a group of celebrators was noticed a policeman hopped out of the automobile, gathered in the horns and other instruments and also the owners who resisted. Within eight blocks the tonneau of the automobile was heaped with the confiscated tin horns and "ticklers."

Frankling K. Lanes' boom for the vice presidency departed in a manner amusing to most of the Democrats at Denver but in a way that is an old story on the Pacific coast.

A long while ago some one in Colorado, who admired Lanes' record on the inter-state commerce commission, started a boom for the vice presidency for him. A man from California reminded the other boosters that Lane was not a native born American having originally been a British subject on Prince Edward Island.

Just why such enormous eagles are suspended over the speaker's stand at the convention hall has been explained by members of the fraternity of Eagles. Temporary Chairman Bell is the highest flyer in the order. He is grand worthy president of the society and has been royally entertained here by the Denver aerie.

Denver was quick to take advantage of the eastern tenderfoot in the "wild and woolly." Cowboys and cowgirls—some real, and some imitation—have been one of the sights on Denver's streets that have particularly interested the visitors. The cowgirls ride range ponies and men's saddles, and some of them even carry six-shooters. One photographer invites easterners to step in, don "chaps," spurs and gun, and "send your picture as a cowboy back home."

One of the side attractions is the performance of the "Holy Jumpers," a religious sect which started on the Pacific coast and has spread all over the country. The Jumpers have recently adopted a uniform which includes bloomers and boots of the Cossack pattern. Every night a band of about 25 men and women Jumpers parade the downtown streets and hold service on a prominent thoroughfare, where they sing, yell and jump.

Members of the committee on credentials are not to be found in the "Oh-be-joyful" throngs in the hotel bars or elsewhere. They are trying to recuperate. The committee held a session lasting continuously from 5 o'clock in the afternoon, until 11 o'clock the next morning. The session started with everyone in a fight mood. It ended with half of them asleep.

The committee adjourned until afternoon, but it was impossible to get the members together again and the preparation of the report which was submitted to the committee was finally passed up to the chairman and secretary.

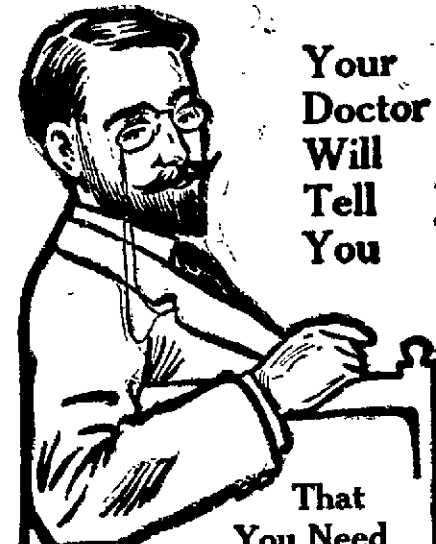

One of the reporters observed at the evening session at the desks of the Chicago Tribune force was Representative Longworth, of Cincinnati, O.

Senator "Bob" Taylor of Tennessee, in illustrating the attitude of some of the vice presidential possibilities, told the convention last night the story of the southern mountaineer who swore off on whiskey. Shortly after taking the pledge he brought a bottle home to his wife with the explanation that he was for medicinal uses only.

"You know, honey," said he to his wife, "I have sworn off and won't drink a drop. But, honey, if I should get sick and should not want to take it you make me."

There were 3,962,660 cords of wood used in the United States in the manufacture of paper pulp last year, just twice as much as was used in 1899.

The salary paid to professors at the University of Cambridge, England, averages only $2,750.

A Talk on Olive Oil

SOME INSIDE FACTS, NOT GENERALLY KNOWN, BUT INTERESTING. "PURE" is usually supposed to describe the highest quality of OLIVE OIL, but such is by no means always true. Without exception, the oil imported here is the second, and more often the third pressing—which though pure, is very much inferior to the first expressed.

The best article obtainable in this market is the California product—THE SYLVAR BRAND. This oil is obtained entirely from the first pressing of the fruit, and is not only strictly pure, but of the very highest MEDICINAL quality, and is also entirely palatable. We supply this article at the price usually charged for ordinary grades, and will be pleased to have our friends compare it with any other product.

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache. Why don't you try it?

Women should understand that melancholia, commonly called "the blues," is in nine times out of ten a sure symptom of some serious female organic derangement and should have immediate attention.

Women whose spirits are depressed, and who are ailing and miserable, should rely upon

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND as is evidenced by following letters.

Mrs. F. Ellsworth, of Mayville, N. Y., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"For three years I was in an awful despondent and nervous condition caused by female troubles. I was not contented anywhere, and was in such constant fear that something terrible was going to happen that it seemed as though I should lose my mind. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored my health, and I cannot say enough for it."

Mrs. Mary J. Williams, of Bridgeport, Ill., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I have been suffering from a female trouble, backache and headaches, and was so blue that I was simply in despair. I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure to tell you that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me. The change in my appearance is wonderful, and I wish every suffering woman would try it."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache. Why don't you try it?

Women should understand that melancholia, commonly called "the blues," is in nine times out of ten a sure symptom of some serious female organic derangement and should have immediate attention.

Women whose spirits are depressed, and who are ailing and miserable, should rely upon

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND as is evidenced by following letters.

Mrs. F. Ellsworth, of Mayville, N. Y., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"For three years I was in an awful despondent and nervous condition caused by female troubles. I was not contented anywhere, and was in such constant fear that something terrible was going to happen that it seemed as though I should lose my mind. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored my health, and I cannot say enough for it."

Mrs. Mary J. Williams, of Bridgeport, Ill., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I have been suffering from a female trouble, backache and headaches, and was so blue that I was simply in despair. I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure to tell you that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me. The change in my appearance is wonderful, and I wish every suffering woman would try it."

THE UNPARALLELED DEMONSTRATION FOR BRYAN AT DENVER

The blind Senator from Oklahoma electrified the Denver convention Wednesday and started the demonstration for Bryan that far exceeded anything of the kind in all previous history in American politics. Alluding to the action of the new State in adopting its constitution, the Senator said:

"We rejected the advice of Taft and accepted the advice of Bryan."
The incident was so timely in every regard—so significant in relation to a recent highly important political event—that the tremendous demonstration in the convention hall which followed was inevitable.

The new state of Oklahoma represented by the blind Senator, had adopted its constitution within the past year after a thorough canvass before the people and a campaign of education that attracted the attention of the entire country. Two men of national reputation were called into the proposed new state to make public speech for and against the pending constitution.

William Jennings Bryan favored the adoption of the constitution with his eloquence and oratory. William Howard Taft had previously offered his best efforts and arguments against it. Hence when the people of the new state adopted the constitution by a majority of many thousands they preferred the advice of Bryan to that of Taft, and the blind Senator's eloquent allusion to the fact could have no other effect in the convention hall than a tremendous ovation to Bryan.

That the demonstration exceeded every previous event of the kind in the country's history was not to be unexpected.

The most convincing of all arguments put forth that prosperity has not returned are the optimistic views taken by certain great financiers who have stocks for sale.

Licking county has shown its regard for Bryan—in 1896 and in 1900. The Democracy of this county will give him a much larger vote this fall.

It appears that the Socialistic-Labor party has a candidate for President who has to undergo a twenty-five-year term of imprisonment. How, then, can the Socialistic-Labor candidate for vice president be called his "running" mate?

The city of Denver, in which the Democracy are holding their national convention, is well named after a gallant soldier and a distinguished Democrat.

ST. JOSEPH'S PREDICAMENT.

The Political Plums Proves to Be a Pickle.

The unseemly squabble in the municipal electric plant of St. Joseph, Mo., illustrates the menace of politics in such plants. Some months ago City Electrician Stewart, who has charge of the plant, was indicted by the grand jury. A thorough investigation by expert accountants resulted in quashing these indictments, as there was no evidence that he had been guilty of anything worse than the "loose book-keeping" which is so essential in municipal plants if they are to make a good showing.

In spite of his vindication Stewart was removed by the mayor, who apparently thought it a good chance to put a friend of his in the position. Stewart refused to surrender the plant on the ground that the mayor had no power to remove him except for cause. For some weeks both men have been at the plant, neither drawing any salary, and the case is before the courts.

Meantime a flank attack has been made by the mayor's party by introducing an ordinance to abolish the office of city electrician and create that of superintendent of the electric light plant, thus getting rid of Stewart and enabling the mayor to appoint his own man.

The St. Joseph Press protests against such tactics in an editorial headed, "Save the Electric Light Plant From Politics." Such protests are futile so long as "practical politicians" are in charge of city affairs, for to them municipal plants are the plums which make office worth striving for.

Berkley, Cal., Rejects M. O. J. V. Mendonhall, town clerk, writes that the citizens voted against the proposition to issue bonds to establish an electric light plant in connection with an incinerating plant, for which the proposition to issue bonds was also defeated.—Electrical World.

Mlle. LEJRE IS INJURED

AUTO SOMEWHAT PERFORMED AT BUCKEYE LAKE MAY RESULT SERIOUSLY.

Beautiful Young Girl Has Thrilling Experience When Auto Overturns on Her.

Mlle. Edna Lejre met with her second accident at Buckeye Lake park, Thursday evening, while attempting to loop the loop in an automobile. Her auto started down the incline, successfully made the turn, but when it landed on the level track starting up the finishing stretch of the course, rebounded and overturned with Mlle. Lejre strapped tightly in the seat.

The hundreds of spectators were horrified at the sight, and a number rushed to the young woman's rescue. They picked her up unconscious and bleeding from the nose and mouth, and she was taken to her room. Dr. E. N. Brown of Hebron was rushed to the park on a special car and conducted a careful examination of the young woman's injuries. It was found that she had sustained no broken bones, but was severely bruised about the breast. The physician stated Thursday night that he did not think Mlle. Lejre internally injured. She was able to walk about some during the evening.

It is said that Mlle. Lejre is a Columbus young woman, whose home is in Buttes avenue, but whose real name is carefully hidden behind her professional nom de plume. She is riding the "Somersault of Death" under the management of Roy Repp, who formerly featured his turn with the Hagenbeck shows, and she rightfully claims the distinction of being the only woman now performing this perilous feat. Never-the-less, those who have witnessed the dangerous looking ride at Buckeye Lake, have been emphatic in their disapproval of it, while the two accidents of this week do not give the contrivance a very good send-off for being dangerous.

BEECH WOODS.

The people from here moved into Lancaster Monday and remained until Tuesday evening while the Miller county ditch-injunction was tried in common pleas court. The injunction was dissolved at the cost of the plaintiff. There were about 45 witnesses examined. The court also delivered a judicial lecture on the drainage question, which no doubt will prove future advice for ditchers. But the court did not take the precaution to notice whether the opposing parties had their fingers crossed during the yielding ceremony. Now they are bringing John Doe proceedings. They are after them with damage suits, writs of mandamus, prayers of equity orders to show writs of certiorari, subpoenas, etc.

One of the heaviest hail storms known in this country visited here several days ago. The hail stones were very large and much damage was done to gardens and cornfields, and in some places it played havoc with the window glass.

Mrs. Guss Gettys, with her children, while out driving a few evenings ago, met with a very painful accident. The horse turned sharply, upsetting the rig and fracturing one of Mrs. Gettys' limbs and also injuring the children.

Sam Lones met with an accident a few days ago. He went to Oakthorpe after one of his colts, which he had there in pasture. The colt became frightened and Lones lost control of it and the animal reared and struck him, bruising him severely. His limbs are swollen and he is unable to be about.

PROSECUTOR

Has Not Notified Indictments Against J. F. Lingafelter—Waiting for Physician's Report.

There have been repeated requests made to Prosecutor J. R. Fitzgibbon to nolle the indictments still pending against J. F. Lingafelter. This was asked because of the claim that Mr. Lingafelter was seriously sick and in immediate danger of death. Further, because the Board of Parole could not act on his application for parole unless the indictments against him were nolle. When an Advocate reporter saw Prosecutor Fitzgibbon Thursday morning he said regarding the matter: "I have taken but one stand in this matter, and that is that if Mr. Lingafelter was in immediate danger of death I did not care to see him die in the Penitentiary, and I did not see how the interests of justice would be subserved by his death in that institution. For that reason I have simply asked that I be informed fully and satisfactorily as to the condition of Mr. Lingafelter. Wednesday there was an examination made of Mr. Lingafelter at the Penitentiary by Drs. Mitchell, Stedem and Palmer. This was done at the instance of Mrs. Lingafelter, suggested by myself. The report of the examination was given to Mrs. Lingafelter, but up to this time it has not been given or shown me, and no action has been taken by me in reference to the indictments pending against Mr. Lingafelter."

IRON TRADE REVIEW

Cleveland, Ohio, July 9.—The Iron Trade Review today says: Aside from a slight weakening in the price of Southern iron, which can now be had at $1.50 Birmingham for No. 2 foundry, quotations in other centers are fairly well sustained. In the East the recent purchases of a large pump interest aggregate 25,000 tons, and the International Co. has placed for 3,000 tons with a producer in the Central West, for shipment during the last half of the year to one of its New York plants. The sale of 4,000 tons of malleable, Bessemer and foundry grades to an Indiana implement maker is also reported.

In structural lines the placing of several large contracts is being deferred. New projects under consideration include the New York municipal office buildings, requiring 17,000 tons of steel, and 5,000 tons for a large hotel. Contracts for steel bars are being re-written to include the specified tonnage and consumers' additional requirements to July 1, 1929, although recent concessions on other finished products apply only to deliveries to October 1.

Our best former statistics show a production of 1,113,375 tons in June, as compared with 1,083,992 tons in May, a decrease of 29,383 tons. The daily average for June was 36,112 tons, against 35,466 tons in May. The active stocks show an increase of nine, notwithstanding the fact that many more were blown out during the month.

Of Judge Charles Follett of This City Nominated for President of Ohio State Bar Association.

Hotel Victory, Put-in-Bay, O., July 9.—The Ohio State Bar Association, which convened here yesterday was addressed by Hon. Wm. B. Cockran, congressman from New York. "Our judicial system," said the speaker, "has been receiving considerable criticism in the last few weeks. So great has been the criticism that the expressions have found their way into the platforms of both political parties. The causes of this criticism is the law's delays in giving justice, especially when writs of injunction are issued."

The nominating committee met last evening and nominated A. D. Follett, of Marietta, president; C. R. Gilmore, Dayton, treasurer, and Edw. B. McCarter, of Columbus, secretary for the fifth time.

A. D. Follett, of Marietta, who was nominated by the Ohio Bar Association for president, is a nephew of Judge Charles Follett of No. 12 Locust street, this city.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS.

In a game of baseball, of a brand that most far-admire, the Molders took the action bunch into camp in a decisive manner, the final score being 7 to 2.

The entire game was replete with sensational hitting, spectacular fielding, and hard earnest work on the part of every player. It was marred somewhat by several errors but on the whole it was highly enjoyable, especially to Newark fans because the Molders won out by consistent hitting.

The visitors scored right off the bat. In the first inning and Newark went down one run and scored two runs. Again Marion counted in the third and both teams placed another on the right side. Then the Diggers tied in the fifth and Newark came back in the seventh and eighth with two tallies in each frame and clinched the game, though Marion put two across in the ninth.

Tate was the hero of the day while Doc Abbott ended off the fielding honors. Tate got four safe hits out of five trials. Abbott had a double and a triple. Larue, who by the way is a working good third sacker, smashed out a double and a triple and incidentally scored four of the visitors' runs.

Snyder did nice work with the stick, getting a pair of sacrifices and a hit besides working back for a pass. Locke got two out of three and Murray got one out of three and Winters had a perfect record again Wednesday, getting one hit in his one chance with the stick.

Catcher White, Newark's new man, was pitched in the eighth in favor of

PITCHER BURKE

Whom Newark Battered Freely in the Game With Marion.

Winters, White was not holding Webb properly and Webb seemed to be nervous on this account, but braced when Winters put on the big glove and protectors.

THE SCORES.

Marion's first run was made on a strike. With one down, Larue lanned and the ball went through White to the grandstand. Larue resting safely on first. The man pilfered second and though O'Day was an easy out, Tate smashed out his first hit a single, and Larue came home. Ketter doubled to right field fence but both men died on bases when Abbott pulled down Loshaw's long fly.

In the third, Larue got a life on Smith's bad heave to Gygil. He stole again this time, Winters failing to hold the ball. O'Day sacrificed and Tate smashed out a corking triple. Larue scoring.

With one down in the fifth, Larue sent another double to right. O'Day fled to Abbott and Tate doubled, smashing one of Webb's spitters to the right field fence. Larue scampered home and Tate expired at second when Ketter dropped a fly to Gyg.

In the last frame Marion took a brace and with one out Farrell copped a single, his first hit of the game. He scored on Larue's triple to right center and Tate on a run counted on O'Day's sacrifice fly to Locke.

The Molders commenced scoring as soon as possible after coming in from the field in the first inning. Smith worked Burke for a pass and Snyder's sacrifice Abbott singled Smith scoring. Gygil doubled, Abbott scoring on Ketter's bump heave to Larue. Locke and Murray left Gygil on third with one out.

Smith left again in the third and scored after beating out a bump but was stranded on second on a close play. O'Day fielded Abbott's hot shot and the pitcher's box Gygil struck out. Larue drove one to center and scored. Abbott scoring.

Smith's sacrifice, Abbott scoring. Larue's triple to right center and Tate on a run counted on O'Day's sacrifice fly to Locke.

In the eighth, White was pitched in for Burke. White was not holding Webb properly and Webb seemed to be nervous on this account, but braced when Winters put on the big glove and protectors.

Winters, White was not holding Webb properly and Webb seemed to be nervous on this account, but braced when Winters put on the big glove and protectors.

der on second and two down. Abbott dropped a nice single over the infield and both men came home. Gygil walked but Abbott was caught at third trying to steal.

In the eighth Locke opened with a two base drive to right field, Murray following with a single Locke and Sandy tried the double steal and Frank was tagged between third and home, Larue and Laskey doing the trick. Murray reached third however and scored on Winters' single. Ra's pilfered second, and Scottie Winters drove him home with a pretty single to right. Webb and Smith were easy outs and the side was retired.

The pretties piece of field work of the game was Farrell's wonderful running catch of Webb's long drive to left center. It seemed an almost impossible chance but the big fielder pulled it down.

Marion is playing before a crowd of the fair fans today and Friday they stack up against the Molders in a double header. The score:

BURK A WILD ONE

Burk's work at Wehrle Park yesterday recalled a game played with Marion last season, August 29 being the date. The young pitcher started in against Newark and in the first inning gave five bases on balls before he was detected. Burk has always been regarded as a fair sort of a pitcher except for his wildness.

DELOS DRAKE IS PLAYING FIRST

Delos Drake is filling the bill as today man for the Newark Eastern league club. THOMAS TO PITCH NO MORE.

Zanesville, Ill., July 9.—Billy Thomas, former Youngstown star and this year with Columbus, will pitch no more. In going Billy will be converted into an infielder. This much has been decided by Manager Marty Hogan. Hogan has played him on the infield in several games and in the outfield since. In both places Thomas gave a good account of himself.

TAILOR COMMITS SUICIDE.

BEACH ISLAND

PURCHASED BY MESSRS. GEORGE HERMANN AND J. F. CHERRY OF THIS CITY.

Number of Improvements Made and Club House Remodeled—With Lease for Outings.

Beautiful Beech Island, in the Buckeye Lake, where so many enjoyable outings have been held in the past by the Beech Island club of this city, and the local lodge of Elks, has been purchased by Messrs. George Hermann and J. F. Cherry of this city. This enchanting little island is located about one mile south of Buckeye Lake Park and consists of an acre and a half of ground, and is considered the most beautiful of all the islands on the lake. Since the new owners have taken charge, the lawn has been nicely improved, trees trimmed, the club house remodelled, enlarged and freshly painted. The club house consists of a dining room 20x54 feet, a commodious kitchen, reception room 12x20 feet, two screened living rooms 12x15 feet, and a porch 12x54 feet on the first floor. There is also a second floor, consisting of five bedrooms, large hall and a veranda 12x24 feet, which gives it the appearance of a summer hotel. The rooms have been well furnished from the kitchen to the reception room, for the convenience of the occupants.

It is the intention of Messrs. Hermann and Cherry to rent the island to lodges or clubs for outings by the day or week, which gives them an exclusive place for their amusement.

Thursday evening, Mr. Hermann, spring a delightful surprise on the employees of his store when he invited the clerks to the number of nine, to accompany him to the island. It is needless to say that all accepted the invitation and were given one of the times of their lives. A splendid chicken supper was served and the evening was spent in boat riding, fishing and other enjoyments.

ACT QUICKLY.

Delay Has Been Dangerous in Newark.

Do the right thing at the right time. Act quickly in times of danger. Backache is kidney danger. Doan's Kidney Pills act quickly. Cure all distressing, dangerous kidney ills.

Plenty of evidence to prove this. Mrs. Bruce Ferrel, residing on Railroad street, Duane O., says: "While a young girl a heavy weight fell on me and left my kidneys in a very disordered condition. My back gave me a great deal of annoyance and I suffered from bearing down pains which seemed to be as severe during the night as during the day and greatly disturbed my rest. I arose feeling very tired in the morning and had very little energy or ambition during the day. Finally I procured Doan's Kidney Pills, began their use and they positively cured me. I do not hesitate to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to all sufferers of kidney complaint."

Plenty more proof like this from Newark people. Call at A. F. Crayton's drug store and ask what customers report. For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

THE CANAL NUISANCE

(Communicated.)

Editor Advocate:—We have been requested by many of our fellow citizens to call the attention of our authorities to the old public nuisance which now seems to threaten us with an epidemic of typhoid fever, if something is not done at once to abate this public eye sore.

There is no more opportune time than the present for our citizens to "strike at this thing and strike it hard." Can it be possible that our city is compelled to stand idly by and allow the state to harbor this old public nuisance, which has been a stench in our nostrils for years? If the state will do nothing, let our board of public health come to the front and abate it as a public nuisance, as the water is now out of the channel and all the festering mass of corruption is in plain sight. Why should we be compelled to stand back and remain powerless? No! let us "take the bull by the horns" and redeem our fair city from this festering mass of corruption which today threatens the lives of our entire community. Will we do it? We feel that we will.
